

*Both in the offline and online world
too much trivial noise
and destructive sounds make people forget the real thing that counts.*

But whatever happens it's never too late for both of us to turn away from unwanted envy and hate.

So what about you trusting me and me trusting you by jointly working on a common To Do.

And what could be a better start than building a bridge between your and my heart.

Wishing you a healthy, happy and connected 2024.
